To Whom It May Concern:

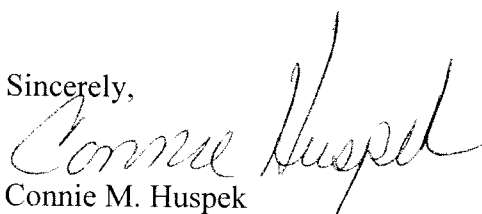

RE: Ashley Colonel

Ashley Colonel worked in our public accounting office in 1999, 2000 and 2001. Her duties included payroll preparation, general ledger posting, general office duties and other computer work. She was a very capable, hard-working individual and interacted well with the other staff and clients. She also designed some excel spreadsheets that ended up saving a lot of time in report generation. She was a great employee.

After she left our employ, she continued to pursue the accounting profession. She has been the accountant for two of my clients and has been responsible for all of their accounting and payroll preparation. She has supplied our office with accurate and easily understood year end reports to utilize in preparation of income tax returns and financial reports required for other purposes.

I would recommend Ashley for future employment.

Sincerely,

Connie M. Huspek
